

RIGHT PERSON, RIGHT PLACE FOR A BUZZ-WORTHY LAUNCH

BACKGROUND

NESCAFÉ Canned Liquid Coffee (CLC) is introducing a new formula with added Arabica beans, tailored to the Thai palate. This enhancement aimed to deliver an exceptional taste that resonated with all Thais, especially those aged 25-45.

The brand aims to cut through the key messages via smart creators and smart media

The campaign sought to drive sales, expand market share, and establish NESCAFÉ CLC as the leading choice for the best-tasting canned coffee.

APPROACH

NESCAFÉ teamed up with "HoneKraSae" the popular news program and host Noom Kanchai, using humor and a playful connection to the host's friend to ensure constant visibility. It featured a funny kickoff with the show's hosts and a series of engaging blind taste tests by Thai celebrities and influencers from various backgrounds. The campaign culminated in a lively YouTube Live showdown, boosting profile and generating social media buzz.

YouTube's strategic ad formats (Masthead, CPV, VVC, VRC) and partnerships, alongside local influencers, played a crucial role in maximizing reach, optimizing content, and driving campaign success.

RESULTS

77M

views

1M

engagements

7%

sales growth

"This is a perfect blend between the brand and creator. The identity of the creator is still there and it matches well with the brand image." Wilailuk Potrakoon,
Chief Marketing Officer, THE STANDARD

Explore more winning campaigns at yt.be/works/campaigns